Case No. 3:22-cv-09010

PLAINTIFF'S COMPLAINT FOR DAMAGES AND INJUNCTIVE RELIEF and DEMAND FOR JURY TRIAL

INTRODUCTION

3 1. This action stems from the knowing, unauthorized and ongoing infringement of 4 Plaintiff's intellectual property by these named Defendants, and their unknown customers, named
5 here as Doe defendants as a result.

6 2. Plaintiff, TIR Consulting LLC ("TIR"), is a California-based adult entertainment
7 company that has produced and owns a substantial library of original works, all of which are 8 branded with its registered "Mistress Harley" family of trademarks ("Original Works").

9 3. Since 2015, TIR's Original Works have been available for purchase around the 10 world on its website at www.mistressharley.com, as well as through authorized third parties 11 pursuant to license agreements for which it is paid and accounted.

12 4. One of the most significant business threats faced by TIR is the widespread and 13 unabated infringement of its Original Works on the web.

14 5. Counterfeit and pirate websites like https.mistress-harley.com, and a myriad of 15 others like it, have an effective assortment of tools at their disposal to accomplish their pirating
16 and counterfeiting without detection and for great profit for everyone involved except the lawful 17 owner of the content.

18 6. One such tool is to redirect traffic from authentic sites, like TIR's
19 www.mistressharley.com, without permission, to third party servers like CloudFlare, who will 20 house the information for their client, and protect the privacy of the infringer (who has paid for 21 both the housing services and the guarantee that CloudFlare will do nothing to interfere with 22 their anonymity and their cyber-theft).

23 7. From there, the pirates and counterfeiters are free to make the stolen works 24 available for purchase, again without permission or accounting, on domain sites that are hosted 25 by companies that sell and host domains, while guaranteeing the anonymity of the domain
26 owner, like the Defendant NameSilo.

27 8. This is precisely how TIR's intellectual property remains available for unauthorized 28 purchase on pirate sites around the web.

1 9. If the owner of the pirate site <https://mistress-harley.com> was known or 2 discoverable, the owners would be sent a cease and desist and the site would be susceptible to
3 shut down and /or brought to Court to account for the piracy, like it is supposed to work.

4 10. However, with the help of companies like these Defendants, who blatantly
5 advertise that part of the service they sell is to shield and redact the true identity of the website's
6 owners and hosts (like NameSilo and CloudFlare), who provide an anonymous shelter for the 7 diverted, stolen traffic and illegal websites, making these pirate and counterfeit sites impossible
8 to police or shut down.

9 11. Plaintiff is far from alone – other content owners who spend the time and money to 10 secure registrations and seek to police their intellectual property, have raised similar complaints
11 against these Defendants. After providing proof of infringement, these third party providers still 12 refuse to disclose which persons or companies directly own, control or host the pirate sites – thus 13 they are making a profit by knowingly shielding their customers despite knowing these 14 customers are breaking the law.

15 12. The Defendants named herein are listed as owners and/or hosts of domains that 16 have and that continue to directly infringe upon TIR's copyrights and trademarks – despite 17 repeated complaints by TIR and its attorneys of infringement on those very websites.

18 13. The Defendants named herein therefore have, with actual knowledge of their 19 customers' direct infringements of TIR's Original Works, materially contributed to or aided in 20 such infringement.

21 14. The Defendants named herein, with the right and ability to control or supervise
22 such infringing activity, have done nothing but allow and continue to profit from such activity.

23 15. These Defendants continue doing business with the pirate sites even after receiving 24 actual notices of infringement from content owners, including here, Plaintiff.

25 16. For these reasons, the parties named herein should be held liable for contributory
26 and vicarious copyright infringement and direct and contributory trademark infringement.
27
28

1 24. CloudFlare provides these services to the owner and the hosts of the infringing
2 website <https://mistress-harley.com/>.

3 25. Defendant NAMESILO LLC ("NameSilo") is an Arizona Limited Liability
4 Company with its principal offices located at 8825 N. 23rd St. Suite 100, Phoenix, AZ 85021.

5 26. Defendant NameSilo offers what they call "free WHOIS privacy" and act as the 6 domain name registrar of the infringing sites <https://mistress-harley.com/> and manyvips.com.

7 27. Plaintiff is ignorant of the true names and capacities of defendants sued herein as 8 DOES 1 through 100 inclusive, and therefore sues these defendants by such fictitious names. The 9 plaintiff is informed, believes and thereupon alleges that the Defendants designated herein as 10 DOES 1 through 100, inclusive, are any one of the following:

11 (a) Parties responsible in some manner for the events and happenings herein
12 referred to that caused injuries and damages proximately thereby to the Plaintiff as herein 13 alleged;

14 (b) Parties that are the agents, servants, employees and/or contractors of the 15 Defendants, each or any of them acting within the course and scope of their agency,
16 employment, or contract;

17 (c) Parties that own, lease, manage, operate, secure and/or are responsible for 18 the premises referred to hereinafter, and/or

19 (d) Parties that have assumed or retained the liabilities of any of the 20 Defendant(s) by virtue of an agreement, sale, transfer or otherwise.

21 28. Plaintiff will amend this complaint to allege their true names and capacities, and 22 the charging allegations, when such are ascertained.

23 JURISDICTION AND VENUE

24 29. The Court has jurisdiction over this action because it arises under the Copyright
25 Act and Lanham Act, 28 U.S.C. § 1338(a). The Court has jurisdiction over the claim for unfair
26 competition asserted herein under 28 U.S.C. §§ 1338(b) and 1367(a).
27
28

1 30. Venue is proper in this District, in that the Defendants may be found in this
2 District, 28 U.S.C. § 1400(a).

3 GENERAL ALLEGATIONS OF FACT

5 31. TIR Consulting LLC is a California based adult entertainment company that owns
6 a large library of original content, which it brands with its family of registered "Mistress Harley"
7 trademarks ("Original Works").

8 32. It has incurred the time and expense of registering its intellectual property with the 9 United States Patent and Trademark Office and the US Copyright Office, both US government 10 agencies designed to give copyright and trademark owners access to the tools necessary to 11 protect and police their intellectual property.

12 33. Nonetheless, on December 12, 2021, a third party secured the domain
13 <https://mistress-harley.com/> with the intention of pirating TIR's intellectual property for its own 14 profit.

15 34. The third party is unknown to Plaintiff because both of the named Defendants, 16 CloudFlare and NameSilo, have shielded that person or entity's information, as a matter of their 17 regular business practice, and for their own profit.

18 35. Both CloudFlare and NameSilo have done this despite being on notice of the 19 infringement that is being perpetrated on the pirate site <https://mistress-harley.com/>.

20 36. Included in the illegally available material for purchase by anyone with access to 21 the internet, worldwide, at <https://mistress-harley.com/> , at the time of writing this complaint,
22 includes an astonishing 65 videos made, paid for, produced and owned by TIR.

23 37. Also included in the pirate site's materials is TIR's family of Trademark
24 registrations for Mistress Harley, including USPTO Regs. 6855999, 5333306 and 5175274, used
25 to brand and sell the videos.

26 38. Also included in the pirate site's materials is a group of videos owned by TIR and 27 registered with the US Copyright Office, including Regs. PA0002371803 / 2022-08-19 ("Sissy
28

1 Workout Series 1: All About the Booty"); PA0002371804 / 2022-08-19 ("Rating Your Dick
2 Pic"); PA0002371801 / 2022-08-19 ("Random Timer Blackmail JOI").

3 39. Each of the above intellectual properties is presumed a valid registration and is 4 statutorily protected under the law.

5 40. Each of the above intellectual properties is available for unauthorized purchase
6 from the following pirate websites.

7 Pirate Site #1 – Mistress-Harley.Com

8 41. The accountability of online domains, to include their registered owners and any 9 email address to report abuse, are locatable through a WHOIS database that is available to the 10 public, and is run mainly by registrars and registries.

11 42. According to Internet Corporation for Assigned Names and Numbers, or ICANN
12 regulations, every domain registrar is required to maintain a publicly accessible database called 13 "WHOIS" containing the contact information for all registered domain names.

14 43. The pertinent information for the WHOIS Search Results for the Domain Name
15 <https://mistress-harley.com/> is as follows:

- 16
17 a. Domain Name: MISTRESS-HARLEY.COM
18 b. Registry Domain ID: 2662961447_DOMAIN_COM-VRSN
19 c. Registrar WHOIS Server: whois.namesilo.com

<https://icann.org/epp#clientTransferProhibited>
m. Name Server: DESI.NS.CLOUDFLARE.COM
n. Name Server: SRI.NS.CLOUDFLARE.COM

1 44. A name server is most easily defined as the actual location of a website - similar to 2 a brick and mortar store's physical address.

3 45. Here, the name server for the pirate site is one of the Defendant CloudFlare's
4 products, while the Registrar is the Defendant NameSilo.

5 Pirate Site #2 - ManyVIPS.com

6 46. Each and every of the 65 Infringing Links, backlinks to another website, 7 www.manyvips.com, and each of the thumbnail images of the video clips similarly backlinks to 8 www.manyvips.com.

9 47. The pertinent information for the WHOIS Search Results for the Domain Name
10 manyvips.com is as follows:

- 11 a. Domain Name: MANYVIPS.COM
- 12 b. Registry Domain ID: 2199018318_DOMAIN_COM-VRSN
- 13 c. Registrar WHOIS Server: whois.namesilo.com
- 14 d. Registrar URL: http://www.namesilo.com

- 23 m. Name Server: ARYANNA.NS.CLOUDFLARE.COM
- 24 n. Name Server: ROCCO.NS.CLOUDFLARE.COM

25 48. Here again, the name server for the pirate site is one of the Defendant CloudFlare's
26 products, while the Registrar is the Defendant NameSilo.

27 Cloudflare - a Favored Tool for Infringers

28 49. CloudFlare boasts that it "...provide[s] security and performance for millions of Internet properties" and that its "services run silently in the background, keeping many of the websites and services you depend on up and running."

1 50. CloudFlare explains that its service converts a domain name search into the IP
2 address for the website associated with that domain name, so that the user can connect to the 3 website they are trying to reach. Without CloudFlare, a user could still get to the domain if the 4 user had the actual IP address for the website associated with that domain name, or find a 5 comparable service on their own or from a third party.

6 51. CloudFlare also “optimizes the delivery of customers' websites from the customers'
7 origin server to visitors' browsers. This gives visitors to a customer's website faster page load 8 times and better performance, while blocking threats and abusive bots and crawlers from 9 attacking the websites.” CloudFlare provides what it calls a transparency report, wherein it 10 admits "Cloudflare has never modified customer content at the request of law enforcement or 11 another third party."

12 52. Based on CloudFlare's own admissions, it caches customer content across its vast 13 global network, for the purpose of bringing the materials physically closer to users, enabling fast
14 access and avoiding overburdened servers. CloudFlare’s Service is offered as a platform to 15 "cache and serve web pages and websites.”

16 53. CloudFlare admits that it does not copy client websites without modification, 17 rather, it admits that it "may modify" that content.

18 54. Sec. 2.5.3 of its terms of use provides that "Cloudflare may modify certain 19 components of Customer Content... Cloudflare may: (i) intercept requests... (ii) add cookies to 20 your domain to track visitors... (iii) add scripts to your page... (iv) add firewall rules to your 21 website; (v) scan your infrastructure ...and (vi) make other changes."

22 55. CloudFlare's terms of use at section 2.5.4, requires its customers to "represent and 23 warrant that Customer Content does not infringe, violate, or misappropriate any third-party right, 24 including any copyright, trademark, patent, trade secret, moral right, privacy right, right of 25 publicity, or any other intellectual property or proprietary right."

26 <https://www.cloudflare.com/terms/>
27
28

1 56. CloudFlare and its customers therefore mutually understand and agree that a user is
2 prohibited from infringement, and CloudFlare has the right to terminate its relationship with any 3 customer that infringes on a third party's copyright and/or trademark rights.

4 57. According to CloudFlare's own pledge "It is Cloudflare's overriding privacy
5 principle that any personal information you provide to us is just that: personal and private. We 6 will not sell, rent, or give away any of your personal information without your consent. Our 7 respect for our customers' privacy applies with equal force to commercial requests and to 8 government or law enforcement requests."

9 58. CloudFlare also readily admits it "...has never modified the intended destination of 10 DNS responses at the request of law enforcement or another third party."

11 59. As a natural consequence, Defendant CloudFlare is a safe holding space for 12 website owners who are offering illegal content, and both sides know exactly what is being 13 bought and sold.

14 60. According to a submission to a US government report on copyright, the Recording 15 Industry Association Of America stated that: "[Piracy] sites are increasingly turning to 16 Cloudflare, because routing their site through Cloudflare obfuscates the IP address of the actual 17 hosting provider, masking the location of the site."

18 61. In 2015, New York District Court Judge Alison J. Nathan issued a preliminary 19 injunction ("TRO") against CloudFlare, ordering that "[u]pon receipt of notice from Plaintiffs or 20 if CloudFlare otherwise has knowledge of an infringement on the part of one of its customers,
21 CloudFlare shall cease providing its services to that customer as soon as possible, but no later
22 than 48 hours after receiving such notice or obtaining such knowledge." Arista Recs., LLC v.
23 Tkach, No. 15-CV-3701 AJN (S.D.N.Y. July 9, 2015) (emphasis added).

24 62. CloudFlare claimed the TRO did not apply to it because it was only a "passive"
25 service, and was not necessary for the operation of the website alleged to be infringing, an 26 argument to which the Court did not agree.

1 72. As an example of doing business legally, TIR publishes on its website an email
2 address where intellectual property based complaints can be directed, so any DMCA complaints
3 are received and responded to within the parameters of the law.

4 73. However, the pirates and counterfeiters utilize yet another tool in their scheme,
5 offered by companies like NameSilo and CloudFlare, who both serve as gatekeepers for any such 6 DMCA and third party complaints. Instead of acting on the complaints, CloudFlare and 7 NameSilo simply disclaim liability and point to each other as registrar or as host.

8 74. Of course this is a dead end loop, if the hosting company and the registrar are both 9 paid by the owner of the site to shield its identity.

10 75. It is thus companies like these very Defendants, who protect and insulate the 11 pirates and make the infringement not only possible but enable it to thrive, all while the legal 12 content owners are left without viable recourse outside of costly and time intensive litigation like 13 this.

14 76. Attempting to enforce copyright laws against pirate sites can be taxing if not 15 impossible, as the owners and initial infringers purposely register their web domains with a 16 private registry, thus masking their identity – and undermining the entire point of policing
17 original content.

18 77. A lawful content owner cannot stop these pirate sites, despite filing complaints and 19 alerting the named domain hosts of the infringement – the complaints of infringement are simply 20 ignored, and the pirate sites flourish.

21 78. And when contacted, companies like and including the Defendants here, refuse to 22 disclose the identity of the host or site owner while ignoring the requests and complaints.

23 79. The effort and expense of identifying or bringing owners of pirate sites into Court 24 may be for not, as it is cheaper and easier to disappear and resume services anonymously on 25 some other website under some other entity's privacy shield.

1 80. The pirate sites would be unable to accomplish their goals if the Defendants did not
 2 act as third party service providers, to include hosts, content delivery networks, advertising
 3 networks and affiliate programs, all the while protecting the identity of the actual pirate.

4 TIR and Reports of Infringement

5 81. TIR, on its own behalf and through its attorneys, repeatedly complained to 6 CloudFlare of the infringement and abuse, and was told that CloudFlare was a pass-through and 7 would do nothing. "Cloudflare offers network service solutions including pass-through security
 8 services, a content distribution network (CDN) and registrar services. Due to the pass-through 9 nature of our services, our IP addresses appear in WHOIS and DNS records for websites using 10 Cloudflare. Cloudflare cannot remove material from the Internet that is hosted by others."

11 82. CloudFlare admitted that the accepted 65 URL(s) for the DMCA report on 12 mistress-harley.com included:

- 13 1) <https://mistress-harley.com/>
- 14 2) https://mistress-harley.com/mistress-harley-10-minute-joi-game_6.html

16 ("The 65 Infringing Links")

18 83. Each of the 65 Infringing Links reflects the registered family of trademarks for 19 "Mistress Harley" all of which are owned exclusively by TIR.

20 84. Moreover, four of the above video's are registered with the US Copyright Office.

21 85. CloudFlare identified the hosting provider as "SECUNET, BG" and provided an 22 Abuse Contact: abuse@cryptoservers.biz.

23
24 86. On August 23, 2022, TIR through its attorneys, emailed abuse@cryptoservers.biz:

25 To whom it may concern at SECUNET, BG, I represent T.I.R. Consulting LLC, which 26 owns the domain name mistressharley.com and is the registered owner of the trademark
27 Mistress Harley (United States Regs. 5175274 and 5333306), and the copyright owner of 28 ALL of the content being illegally sold or transmitted on the following site: <https://mistress-harley.com/>. The domain name mistress-harley.com/ is an infringing domain name as it is clearly, and is clearly designed to be, confusingly similar to my

1 client's authentic domain name, mistressharley.com. I am confident that any court will
2 recognize that the owner of this domain is liable to my client for its bad faith intent to
3 profit off of the use of this domain name to redirect traffic from my client's authentic site
4 to this counterfeit site. See 15 U.S.C. §§ 1114 & 1125.

5 Additionally, the site is populated with content that infringes my client's exclusive rights
6 as the registered owner of the trademarks. Further, each of the unique URLs below [all
7 were listed] link to video clips, each one representing a unique instance of trademark
8 infringement because EACH video includes and/or displays my client's' mark(s)...

9 THIS IS YOUR FINAL NOTICE OF THIS INFRINGEMENT - you were put on actual
10 notice of each of these direct infringements on August 4, 2022, yet the site remains active
11 to this day... Consider this writing a formal demand to do all of the following:

- 12 1. Locate the IP of the owner of mistress-harley.com by 13 emailing abusereply@cloudflare.com, and locate the domain name registrar
- 14 2. Provide that information to my office
- 15 3. Remove the entire infringing site, and all of its contents from the internet immediately, 16 and provide proof of such removal, in writing, to my office
- 17 4. Cease and desist from providing any services to the known infringer, permanently, and 18 take all steps to ban the counterfeit site's owner from ever publishing under this alias 19 again.
- 20 5. If the above steps are not taken immediately, I will have no choice but to advise my 21 client to initiate litigation against you for your contributory liability.

12 89. PrivacyGuardian.org claims on its website that "We guard our customers by 13 allowing their details to remain private while still complying with domain registration rules."

14 90. Privacy Guardian further directs that "*If a domain utilizing our service has engaged
15 in SPAM or some other illegal activity, please provide evidence of such behavior below. If you
16 have a copyright/trademark dispute, you should direct your complaint to the respective web site
17 host for the domain. We are solely a privacy service, and, as such we have no control over the 18 storage or distribution of any allegedly infringing materials.*"

19 91. Up to and including on February 2022, TIR and its attorneys made formal 20 complaints to NameSilo, from the trails of CryptoServier.biz and at CloudFlare's direction, and 21 February 15, 2022, NameSilo's anonymous abuse team provided in pertinent part "Please note 22 we are only the domain name registrar and cannot validate or control the content posted on the 23 site....Hope you find this helpful! NameSilo Abuse Team, NameSilo Abuse Portal powered by 24 Freshdesk Support Desk."

25 92. The mistress-harley.com site remains active and continues to sell TIR's Original
26 Content as of the present date.

27 93. TIR and its attorneys' formal complaints to NameSilo and CloudFlare were 28 identical to those detailed above, as were the responses.

94. As is the case for mistress-harley.com, this site remains active and continues to sell
TIR's Original Content as of the present date.

1 Lost and Diverted Profits as a Result of Infringement

2 95. As a result of the piracy and infringement, TIR has suffered consistent lost profits
3 and decreased sales, and has calculated this lost amount to be in the tens of thousands of dollars
4 and growing exponentially every day. The observed growth of infringing content on these sites
5 relates directly to a decline in TIR's profits.

6 96. It is at this time impossible to know how many videos have sold on the pirate sites
7 without an accounting.

8 97. These third party providers confound the efforts of copyright owners like TIR who 9 seek to terminate chronic infringement by pirate sites by asserting a distant relationship from the 10 pirate sites and refusing to disclose information known to them about which persons or 11 companies directly own, control or host the pirate sites.

12 98. This case raises the problem of service providers who continue to do commerce 13 with pirate sites even after receipt of actual knowledge of repetitive acts of infringement on such 14 sites.

15 99. These Defendants profit by supporting and providing critical services to pirate sites
16 despite being on notice that these customers are repeat infringers.

17 100. They have systematically failed to implement or enforce a repeat infringer policy
18 and force lawful copyright and trademark holders into litigation, knowing that many businesses
19 cannot afford the legal battle required.

20 101. This undermines the entire purpose of DMCA.

21
22 FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION
23 Contributory Trademark Infringement
24 (15 U.S.C. § 1114)
25 Against Defendants CloudFlare and NameSilo

26 102. Plaintiff incorporates by reference the above paragraphs as though set forth in full.

27 103. Plaintiff owns U.S. Trademark Registrations protecting the mark "Mistress Harley"
28 that include Regs. 6855999, 5333306 and 5175274 ("Plaintiff's Marks").

1 104. Defendants CloudFlare and NameSilo knowingly and intentionally for profit, both
2 supply services to customers that are known to be direct infringers of Plaintiff's Marks.

3 105. Defendants CloudFlare and NameSilo shield these known infringing customers'
4 identities, forcing them to evade detection and to be sued here only as Doe Defendants, thereby 5 allowing those infringers the ability to effectuate chronic publication, use and exploitation of 6 Plaintiff's Marks through Defendants' platforms.

7 106. Defendants' customers' use of Plaintiff's Marks is without the permission of 8 Plaintiff.

9 107. Defendants' have direct control over, and monitor and provide the online
10 publication services to all of their customers, including knowing infringers like these Doe
11 Defendants who own and profit from the pirate sites.

12 108. The pirate sites are causing Plaintiff to suffer decreased and lost revenues.

13 109. If Defendants' conduct is permitted to continue, Plaintiff faces the risk of 14 irreparable harm. Plaintiff's remedy at law is not by itself adequate to remedy Defendant's
15 actions, and irreparable harm suffered by Plaintiff will continue unless this Court enjoins
16 Defendants from continued infringement.

17 110. Plaintiff is therefore entitled to injunctive relief.

18 111. Furthermore, Plaintiff is informed and believes, and on that basis alleges, that the 19 actions of Defendants were undertaken willfully and with the intention of causing confusion,
20 mistake, or deception, making this an exceptional case entitling Plaintiff to recover reasonable 21 attorneys' fees and treble damages pursuant to 15 U.S.C. § 1117.

22
23 SECOND CAUSE OF ACTION
24 Direct Trademark Infringement
25 Against All Doe Defendants

26 112. Plaintiff incorporates by reference the above paragraphs as though set forth in full.
27
28

1 113. Plaintiff owns U.S. Trademark Registrations protecting the mark "Mistress Harley"
2 that include Regs. 6855999, 5333306 and 5175274 ("Plaintiff's Marks"), creating a presumption
3 of validity over these marks.

4 114. These Doe Defendants are using the named Defendants' web services to publish
5 two infringing and pirate websites, wherein they are selling without authorization, products
6 marked with Plaintiff's Marks.

7 115. These pirate sites are causing consumer confusion as to the source of the goods,
8 and are purposefully undercutting the cost of Plaintiff's products that are branded with Plaintiff's
9 Marks, diverting customers from Plaintiff's website and to the pirate sites.

10 116. Plaintiff seeks damages in an amount to be proven at trial, and injunctive relief to 11 stop the publication of the pirate sites in order to prevent further harm and confusion.

12 FOURTH CAUSE OF ACTION
13 Contributory Copyright Infringement
14 (15 U.S.C. § 1125(a))
15 Against Defendants CloudFlare and NameSilo

16 117. Plaintiff incorporates by reference the above paragraphs as though set forth in full.

17 118. Plaintiff owns Copyright TIR and registered with the US Copyright Office,
18 including Regs. PA0002371803 / 2022-08-19 ("Sissy Workout Series 1: All About the Booty");
19 PA0002371804 / 2022-08-19 ("Rating Your Dick Pic"); PA0002371801 / 2022-08-19 ("Random 20 Timer Blackmail JOI") (together, the "Copyrighted Works").

21 119. The named Defendants have, with actual and/or constructive knowledge of direct 22 infringements of TIR's copyrighted works, materially contributed to or aided in such 23 infringement and are thus liable for contributory copyright infringement.

24 120. The named Defendants have also induced infringement of TIR's Copyrighted
25 Works.

26 121. As a result of these Defendants' acts of infringement, TIR is entitled to injunctive
27 relief, damages, disgorgement of profits, statutory damages and attorneys' fees.

FIFTH CAUSE OF ACTION
Vicarious Copyright Infringement
(15 U.S.C. § 1125(a))
Against Defendants CloudFlare and NameSilo

122. Plaintiff incorporates by reference the above paragraphs as though set forth in full.

123. Plaintiff owns Copyright TIR and registered with the US Copyright Office, including Regs. PA0002371803 / 2022-08-19 ("Sissy Workout Series 1: All About the Booty"); PA0002371804 / 2022-08-19 ("Rating Your Dick Pic"); PA0002371801 / 2022-08-19 ("Random Timer Blackmail JOI") (together, the "Copyrighted Works").

124. The named Defendants have the right and ability to control the infringing pirate sites, as they are the provider of services to the owners of those sites, and can demand the cessation of the piracy or terminate the accounts of the infringers (just as they would do when their clients fail to pay for their services).

125. Indeed, the named Defendants admit to having control over the content that is being published utilizing its services.

126. These named Defendants have been given actual and/or constructive knowledge of direct infringements of TIR's copyrighted works, yet despite having the ability to control or supervise the direct infringement described herein, they have failed to exercise such right and ability and have directly benefited financially from such infringing activity.

127. As such, the named Defendants are liable for vicarious copyright infringement.

128. As a result of these Defendants' acts of infringement, TIR is entitled to injunctive relief, damages, disgorgement of profits, statutory damages and attorneys' fees

1 137. Unless Defendants are restrained from pursuing their unlawful course of conduct,
2 Plaintiff will continue to suffer irreparable harm. Plaintiff is therefore entitled to injunctive relief.

4 PRAYER FOR RELIEF

5 WHEREFORE, Plaintiff prays for judgment against Defendants as follows:

- 6 1. That Defendants, and each of them, pay general and special damages to the 7 Plaintiff for Defendants' infringement and unfair competition in accordance with proof at trial;
- 8 2. that Defendants, and each of them, pay punitive and/or treble damages to Plaintiff
9 for Defendants' infringement and unfair competition in accordance with proof at trial;
- 10 3. that the Court enter an injunction against each of the Defendants, and their agents, 11 servants, employees, and attorneys, and those persons in active concert and participation with 12 them:
- 13 (a) Enjoining the unauthorized use or publication of the Plaintiff's Marks or any 14 colorable imitation thereof or confusingly similar term, by any and all Defendants;
 - 15 (b) Requiring the disclosure by the named Defendants of the identity of the Doe
16 Defendants who are the owners and operators of the pirate sites;
 - 17 (c) Ceasing providing any services to the owners of the pirate sites;
 - 18 (d) Requiring the immediate return to Plaintiff of the content of the pirate sites
19 from the Doe Defendant owners and operators;
 - 20 (e) Requiring Defendants' cease selling Plaintiff's content through its pirate
21 sites;
- 22 4. For Plaintiff's costs, including attorneys' fees and expenses;
- 23 5. For treble damages for the intentional infringement herein;
- 24 6. For such other and further relief as the Court deems just and necessary.
